

In Loving Memory

After 91 years, the angels came down from heaven to take Dad home. Such a great day for him and such a sad day for All of us that loved him so dearly. With that thought Judy and all the people that loved Dad that the angels took before him are all so happy to see him. The tears we have now will dry in time but his memory will last us a life time. Dad's wishes were never to go to a home, have his shoes on till the end and have all of his family at his side, especially his wife of 66 years, when the angels come. He got his wishes.

He loved being an auctioneer for over 80 years. On September 12th he still sold over 2 hours of miscellaneous at the age of 91 – never skipping a beat. If you didn't get your hand down fast enough he still might throw an extra bid in for you...HA HA Amazing. There have been a lot of Auctioneers, but I was taught by the best. Not bragging, but we were the best team in the business. Bar None. He was the "World's Best Auctioneer" in the world.

Besides teaching us kids how to work, he taught us to stand up for ourselves and do what we believe is right and just. One thing he taught us we will never forget – No matter how rich or powerful you are and no matter if you have nothing you are someone. He treated everybody the same. He was a real Icon in the cattle industry and in life.

Dad was present at his real celebration of life – his 90th birthday party. He greeted over 1,000 people in person and got to visit and greet all. Nobody left hungry or thirsty. He would say visit with people when you and they are alive. When you are gone – it's too late.

We hope all of his friends will understand with the virus so hot, our family has elected for the safety of all his friends and families to keep his burial very small and simple. Just remember his birthday party as the last dance.

Thanks to all. You were all very special to our DAD.

P.S. Dad tell Judy 'hi' and everybody else – Till we all meet again. Love, Mom and all of us. We will miss ya.
